MEET A BOARD MEMBER

Jayme Stalder

Jayme Stalder is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker and has been in the field of Social Work for 22 years serving children and families.

Currently, she works as a Child and Family Behavioral Health Outreach Coordinator where among other things, she consolidates resources to support healthy family outcomes. Prior to this position, Jayme served as the Army Community Service Family Advocacy Program Manager where she supervised a small professional team and managed four family programs. From 2010 to 2018 Jayme worked for the Army Community Service Exceptional Family Member Program as a Systems Navigator, where she proudly supported Military Families with children or adults who had a disability or chronic medical condition.

Jayme sits on a few community committees in the surrounding area and enjoys the multi-disciplinary collaboration that supports and promotes health and social outcomes. She is passionate about serving and supporting others, whether it is behind the scenes or in person and she does not hesitate to jump in, share information, provide resources, or trouble shoot areas of need.

After serving in the Army for ten years, Jayme calls Clarksville home. She and her husband Rick met in the Army and have been married for 30 years. They enjoy fishing, boating, and any time at the beach.
